

2nd National Social Leadership Summit

4-6 March 2016

IICC, Lodhi Road. New Delhi

About the Summit:

In the quest for a sustainable change, the community is trying various measures, at individual as well as cluster level to pursue social, economic and educational aspirations, not only within the stipulated government framework but through ancillary private efforts.

We understand and believe that social leaders are the asset, backbone and face of any community. It is with these young leaders in mind, the three day summit is called to discuss and debate issues concerning the community.

About the Organizers:

MOEMIN: Movement for empowerment of Muslim Indians is an advocacy group working for the empowerment of Muslim Indians since 1999. It has been organising various activities across the country on themes of education, social upliftment and nation building.

AMP: Association of Muslim Professionals (AMP) is a national, community based, non-profit organization run by working Muslim professionals to for the overall development of Muslim Community. AMP is spread out at a national level with more than 50 Chapters in 12 States across India and growing further across the country.

The organizing team consists of dedicated professionals, based at different geographical locations, who are taking their time out from their working schedule to support this noble initiative.

Why Support?

- It is one of a kind opportunity to support an initiative where the community leaders collect to debate and discuss vital issues concerning Indian Muslims.
- A great way to connect with the community leaders who join from all sections from society representing all geographical locations.
- Sponsors to get high visibility through Press conference, Advertisements of event, Social media and other related activities.
- The summit is keenly observed by expatriates as well as NRI diaspora across the globe.
- The summit is covered extensively by mainstream print media in both english and regional languages.

We would welcome your own ideas for discussion, and would be glad to assist with any enquiries you may have. The wide range of opportunities available are mentioned below so that you can choose a package that fits your particular marketing strategy or you can discuss to have your own idea working out.
